

Johannes is a permanent academic CNRS researcher in France with over 15 years of experience in quantum research and teaching.

He published more than 40 scientific articles, and is a regular invited speaker at international conferences (50+ scientific talks).

Johannes has a PhD and a master degree in theoretical physics and performed his research at renowned international academic institutions: Technical University Munich, Germany; University of Innsbruck, Austria; University of Pittsburgh, PA, US; JILA, University of Colorado, Boulder, CO, US; and the CNRS and University of Strasbourg, France